Biography

Robert Kjer Jakobsen was born in Portland, Oregon, on March 8, 1918. From 1949 to 1985, he was chief designer of the Los Angeles furniture company, Virtue Brothers; his designs of chrome and formica furniture were particularly successful. In retirement, he turned to photography. His early work shooting for men's body building magazines led to experimental fine art photography involving the use of photochemicals and reprinting from negatives and prints. He died on May 27, 2002.

Scope and Content and Container List

The collection consists primarily black & white photographs and negatives, together with a smaller number of color negatives and a few color prints, of gay pride parades and festivals in Long Beach and Los Angeles, 1984-2001.
