and Updates from NE Archives Foundation and Archives at the USC Libraries

July 2017
New Collection at ONE Archives at the USC Libraries

The ONE Archives at the USC Libraries has acquired a collection of signs and #ResistMarch, which took place on June 11 in Los Angeles, California. Ever inspired by the powerful messages and the creative visuals of signs and posters from the 1950s to the present, the ONE Archives Foundation wants to collect your #ResistMarch Los Angeles posters and signs! As the largest LGBTQ archive in the world, ONE Archives at the USC Libraries is committed to preserving history in the making as we march towards full equality. If you would like to donate your #ResistMarch posters and signs, please contact us at askone@onearchives.org for more information.

Pride Month in Retrospect: ONE Archives Foundation in

The ONE Archives Foundation collaborated with many community partners throughout Pride Month, honoring the brave individuals who started movements to stand strong and fight for our equality and visibility. During Pride Month we participated in 16 events throughout Greater Los Angeles, including Our Pride at the Historic Leimert Park and Councilmember Mitch O’Farrell Inauguration Celebration. Our educational history panels were displayed at seven locations across the region, including West Hollywood Park and Los Angeles City Hall’s Bridge Gallery. Your support makes this important work in the community possible, preserving our histories of our struggles and victories to advance equality for future generations. ONE Archives Foundation’s mission to share LGBTQ history, art, and culture with diverse communities by contributing today.

The ONE Archives Foundation's History Panels are on view around West Hollywood Park

For the City of West Hollywood’s annual One City One Pride LGBTQ Arts Festival, the ONE Archives Foundation and the City of West Hollywood partnered to display the ONE Archives Foundation’s History of the LGBTQ Civil Rights Movement History Panels around the West Hollywood Park. We are thrilled to announce that the History panels will continue to be displayed around the park through the end of August! Make sure to stop by and enjoy queer history on display!

The History of the LGBTQ Civil Rights Movement History Panel series consists of two new panels about the City of West Hollywood and its critical role in LGBTQ community organizing. To find out more about ONE Archives Foundation’s history panels, please click here.

The ONE Queer Garden Club is back!

Next meeting: Saturday, July 22, 10am-1pm

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries
909 West Adams Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90007

The aim of the ONE Queer Garden Club (OQGC) is to improve the physical garden terrain around the ONE Archives at the USC Libraries. Over time, the garden and OQGC will evolve to build a Legacy Garden, a creative place to commemorate the many queer ancestors who have contributed to our lives and LGBTQ history. The next meeting will include a workshop with mosaic artist, Jolino Beserra, to create mosaic tile decorations for the garden! Click here for more information on OQGC.
