ONE Archives Foundation at Camp Brave Trails

Over the past three weeks, Education & Outreach Manager Erik Adamian and Education & Outreach Assistant Nick Bihr facilitated a workshop at Camp Brave Trails, a summer camp for LGBTQ youth leaders. They presented an interactive workshop on the history of drag performance utilizing material from ONE Archives at the USC Libraries in their presentation and activities. At the end of each presentation, the participants created personal drag mood boards, as photographed on the left!

ONE Materials Featured in Exhibitions at LACE and Pasadena Museum of California Art

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries contributed materials in two Los Angeles-area exhibitions on view this summer:

CAVERNOUS, at Los Angeles Contemporary Exhibitions (LACE), includes anonymously produced artworks from the collections at ONE, selected by artist Young Joon Kwak.

For more information about this exhibition, please click here.

Currently on view at the Pasadena Museum of California Art (PMCA) is Judy Chicago’s Birth Project: Born Again. In the exhibition’s intersectional feminism reading space, are publications from ONE’s past exhibitions, including MOTH A’s Transgender History in 99 Objects and Stand Close, It’s Shorter Than You Think.
